For HOYS qualifiers all Riders, Owners and Producers must be members of Sports Horse Breeding GB, The Showing Register or The British Show Horse Association. Horses must be registered with Sports Horse Breeding GB, The Showing Register or The British Show Horse Association. HOYS classes cannot be entered on a day ticket.

Classes 2-7 and 93 are qualifying classes for the Royal International Horse Show.

AMATEUR RULES – including Amateur Working Hunter AMATEUR. Please refer to 2025 SHB(GB) Amateur Rules & Definition. a). It is expected that Exhibitors will compete in the true spirit of these Rules. The Directors / Board / Council reserve the right, in their absolute discretion, to reclassify an Exhibitor's Amateur status/entry should they deem it necessary.

AMATEUR STATUS a person is an amateur for the purpose of classes run under society rules if he/she does not, during the current or previous season

Engage in showing livery/production, buying, selling, dealing or hiring of horses in any commercial capacity, or owning/standing a stallion at stud, teaching or coaching, as means of deriving a source of income.

Receive remuneration, whether it be monetary or goods in kind, for employment in the connection with horses in showing livery/production, teaching/production, teaching or coaching, (instruction at pony club and riding club excepted). This rule does not include the suppliers or ancillary services in equestrianism, such as farriers, vets, therapists or administrative office roles.

Show a horse owned or sponsored by a company or a commercial firm or show a horse for his/her immediate family accepts showing livery production or training charges, from a person outside the immediate family concerned, in any showing classes, Sport Horse Breeding (GB) or otherwise.

Act as an ambassador, in any showing classes, Sport Horse Breeding (GB) or otherwise

A competitor is not eligible to compete in amateur classes on an exhibit, which has been ridden by a professional rider in ANY class, Sport Horse Breeding (GB) or otherwise, with the exception of working and side saddle classes, during the current year and the following year, up to and including the Royal International Horse Show.

NOTE: Novice horses ridden by a professional before the 1st of January 2025, will not be affected by the rule change, and therefore will be eligible to compete in amateur classes during the 2025 show season.

(The rule 3e(v), does not apply, if the horse has been professionally produced and ONLY ridden by a showing professional, during the previous season, or if the horse has subsequently been sold and re-registered under new ownership)

If you ride/compete equines on a regular basis, which you do not stable at home, your amateur status will be reviewed by the board/council, i.e., if you ride/compete multiple equines or ride regularly for one or more owners, you could be deemed professional.

At any time whilst in the showground, where an exhibit is going to be competing in amateur classes, showing professional show grooms, are not allowed to ride, work-in (in any form), teach or coach the rider/horse, compete, or enter the ring to groom/strip the horse.

Amateur owner/rider classes: Open to horses owned and ridden by an amateur. No showing professional, including professional show grooms, are allowed into the ring to groom/strip the horse, with the exception of amateur working hunter classes where ALL amateur's including amateur home-produced can receive professional help when walking the course and warming-up in the collecting ring for the jumping phase only – no professional assistance is permitted during the flat ridden/ride section of the class.

Amateur home-produced classes: Open to horses, which are either stabled at home or in a D.I.Y yard, assisted livery permitted, and which since the 1st of January in the current year, have not been shown by a professional during the current season or stabled in a professional yard at any time in the current year. To be ridden by an amateur, this does not exclude amateur owner home-produced riders having lessons at any time with an instructor, providing the horse remains stabled at home. No showing professional, including professional, including professional show grooms, are allowed into the ring to groom/strip the horse. We may require a statement of your eligibility to compete in home-produced classes Rules, Eligibility and Qualifying Classes All classes at this show are run under The Friendly Showing Society (TFSS) Official Rulebook.

By entering, all competitors confirm that they have read, understood, and agree to abide by the TFSS Rules and the conditions set out in this schedule.

The TFSS Rulebook applies in full unless otherwise stated within this schedule. In all matters of welfare, safety, eligibility, and conduct, TFSS Rules take precedence. TFSS Qualifying Classes The following classes may be offered as TFSS qualifiers, in-hand and/or ridden, where approved. Only those classes formally approved by TFSS may be run as qualifying classes at this show. Classes may include, but are not limited to:

- Open Cob
- Open Coloured Horse or Pony
- Open Riding Horse / Hack
- Open Hunter
- Open Mountain and Moorland
- Veteran Horse or Pony Specific class conditions will be stated in the individual class descriptions.

Qualification • 1st place qualifies • 2nd place qualifies only if 1st has already qualified

• Qualifications do not automatically pass down the line • Qualification may be withheld if, in the Judge's opinion, the required standard has not been met • Qualification is horse or pony specific and not transferable The Judge's decision is final.

It is the competitor's responsibility to ensure that qualification cards are correctly completed, signed, and dated by the Judge, and that a clear copy of the horse or pony's passport identification page is submitted in accordance with TFSS instructions.

TFSS accepts no responsibility for missing, incomplete, or incorrectly submitted documentation. Horse Welfare Horse welfare is the overriding principle at all TFSS-affiliated competitions.

The Judge, Steward, or Show Officials reserve the right to:

- Inspect tack, bits, spurs, and equipment at any time
- Eliminate competitors where welfare or safety is compromised
- Refuse entry to, or remove, any horse or pony deemed unfit, distressed, lame, exhausted, or unsafe In the interests of safety and welfare, any fall of horse, rider, or handler will result in immediate disqualification. The Judge's decision is final.

Eligibility • Horses and ponies must be four years old or over to compete in both in-hand and ridden classes • Stallions are permitted unless otherwise stated in the schedule and must be correctly registered and handled or ridden by a competent adult

• Junior competitors may not ride or handle stallions Any additional eligibility requirements will be stated in the individual class description.

Tack and Equipment All tack must be safe, correctly fitted, and appropriate to the class. Training aids are not permitted in the competition ring. Any tack, bit, or equipment deemed inappropriate by the Judge or Steward may be prohibited. Judges and Stewards All Judges officiating at TFSS qualifying classes must be members of the TFSS Approved Judges Panel.

Stewards act on behalf of TFSS and have authority to enforce the Rules in the interests of welfare and safety. All judging decisions are final.

Conduct, Behaviour and Social Media Abuse of horses, officials, judges, stewards, volunteers, or competitors will not be tolerated. Unsporting behaviour, including defamatory, abusive, or inflammatory comments made online by competitors or their associates acting on their behalf, which are likely to bring TFSS, its officials, or its competitions into disrepute, may be treated as a breach of TFSS Rules. TFSS reserves the right to issue warnings, eliminate competitors, withdraw qualification, or refuse future participation.

Insurance and Liability All competitors enter and compete entirely at their own risk. By running TFSS qualifying classes, the organising show confirms that it holds valid public liability insurance. Neither TFSS nor the Show Organisers accept responsibility for any loss, damage, injury, accident, or illness however caused.
